TEDS (The Ecumenical Discussion Society)

TEDS is open to all Caius students. It is a forum for debate on topics of interest including (but not restricted to) religion, led by a student or occasionally an outside speaker. Come to the Junior Parlour after Second Hall (about 8.15pm) for port, claret and madeira, with cheese and fruit, and join in (or just listen to) the discussion.

Eucharistic services are from Common Worship.

Choral Evensong and the daily Office are from the Book of Common Prayer 1662 (6 & 1928).

Full details of the services can be found on the noticeboard outside the Chapel, or on the college website (www.cai.cam.ac.uk), which also provides a selection of sermons.

Preachers

What do Sunday Evensong preachers get in return for their kindness in visiting Caius? Dinner on High Table in Hall. But this is currently off the menu, so it seems unfair to invite preachers from distant places. Luckily there also exist preachers who have no dining requirements and will not be disappointed by current modest arrangements. None of them refused my invitation, so we now have a stellar list to look forward to on Sunday evenings.
