

TEDS (The Ecumenical Discussion Society)

TEDS is open to all Caius students (guests by arrangement with the Dean). It is a forum for debate on topics of interest including (but not restricted to) religion, led by a student or outside speaker. Come to the Junior Parlour after Second Hall (about 8.15pm) for port, claret and madeira, with cheese and fruit, and join in (or just listen to) the discussion.

Services in bold type are sung by the College Choir.

The Chapel is a house of prayer, where all are welcome, and it is always open during the daytime and evening.

Members of College wear gowns at evening services.

Requests for prayer may be made directly to the Dean; anyone can write requests in the intercessions book in the Dean's stall at the East (altar) end of the Chapel.

Preachers

What do Sunday Evensong preachers get in return for their kindness in visiting Caius? Dinner on High Table in Hall. But this is currently off the menu, so it seems unfair to invite preachers from distant places. Luckily there also exist preachers who have no dining requirements and will not be disappointed by current modest arrangements. None of them refused my invitation, so we now have a stellar list to look forward to on Sunday evenings.
