N.B. To call up catalogue entries for the Caius Library holdings of Blake facsimile volumes, open the Newton OPAC interface (the usual online catalogue), select local database and then Gonville and Caius College, then at Guided Search enter in authorname field 'William Blake Trust'; this will give call-marks and locations for the Trianon Press facsimiles (the very highest quality, Old Library, not borrowable) and for the Tate Gallery facsimiles (good quality, Working Library, borrowable), a total of 17 + 5 titles in all. Items shelved in the Old Library may be seen by request to Library staff during normal working hours; for more extended study it may be convenient to make an appointment ahead of time.

Bindman (David), William Blake; Catalogue of the Collection in the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge (Cambridge, 1970) [there have been numerous important additions to this major collection of Blake's books, drawings & paintings since the date of this catalogue: visit the Museum and find out!].
